

Applying for ACTO Organisational Membership

We recognize that there are many organisations interested in online therapy. If you feel your organisation would have something to contribute to the development of the profession and want to engage in the professional discussion, then we would welcome your membership. We envisage a wide range of organisations might be interested in this section including professional indemnity insurers, developers of apps and software, portal and platforms, research tools companies, to name but a few.

As an organisational member you may propose up to two members who will enjoy the same benefits as associate members, unless they are already Professional Members in their own right.

Membership benefits

- Access to the Members' Area of the ACTO website
- Eligibility for our members' forum
- Eligibility for all Research & Development working groups and networks that may develop
- Up to two nominated members having the same rights as Associate Members.
- Dedicated page for each organizational member on the ACTO website
- First priority for trade stand space at any event with a 20% reduction on the advertised price.

Professional Conduct

ACTO organizational members are required to:

- Comply with the rules of their Professional body in terms of professional indemnity insurance and ongoing supervision.
